

CARLISLE HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

The Carlisle Area School District is proud to present the 1995-1996 Carlisle High School Marching Band. The 208 member marching unit is comprised of 166 musicians, 39 band front members, and three Drum Majors. Leading the band on the field are Drum Majors Becca Niemitz, Matt Greenway, and Sara Miller.

This year's field show presents the colors red, yellow, black, and white. Inspired by the different cultures that make up our world. The band states its theme in the opening selection, "Red and Yellow, Black and White." "Colors of the Wind" from the popular film Pocahontas, reflects upon the early history of this country. The mood then shifts to feature the pentatonic melody of "Variations on A Korean Folk Song", by John Barnes Chance. Next, the percussion section is featured performing the sounds and rhythms of African Folk Music, which leads to the finale of the show.

The Marching Band is Directed by David Rohrer, assisted by Victor Wertz. The visual design and instruction is by Randy Fleisher, assisted by Roger Wolf, Greg Swartzlander, and Bill Toomey. Color Guard Design and instruction is by Lori Rabeler, assisted by Dawn Slusser and Heather Forrest. The percussion staff included Mark Gray, Gary Greyhosky, Irv Stevenson, and Joe Wirt.
