

Carlisle High School Marching Band

The Carlisle Area School District is proud to present Carlisle High School Marching Band's 2003 field show, "Heading West – The Journey Continues". The band is led on the field by Drum Majors Megan Taylor and Janelle Hoch.

This year's field show is in four parts and begins with The Journey Continues, incorporating last year's train theme with several Western melodies. The next three parts of the show present music by Aaron Copeland including A Chorus Girl's Dance from the ballet, Hear Ye, Hear Ye; The Promise of Living, from the opera, Tenderland; and music from Rodeo.

The marching band is directed by David Rohrer, assisted by Victor Wertz. Design staff includes Brian Prato - visual; Dan DeLong - percussion arranger; Brian Gochenour - pit percussion arranger; Nicole Clites - color guard; and Rick Wygant - music arranger. Additional staff includes Lynn Keefer, Melissa Saylor, Tim Rarick, Jeff Shipman, Brian Handly, Phil VanOrden, Kristin Landis, Kim Dunlap, Matt Shank, Becky Terry, and Christine Brophy. Special summer instructors included Kim Novak, Ryan Noss, Nick Miller, and John Gillenwater. Chris Lang is the Band Manager/Administrative Assistant.

Soloists include Alan Graham, trumpet in the Promise of Living and trombonists Ben Cuttitta, Spencer Powell, and Marshall Edens in Rodeo.

In November, the band will reach their final western destination when they travel to Hollywood, California to perform in the 72nd HOLLYWOOD CHRISTMAS PARADE.

The band and band staff would like to thank the Carlisle High School Band Boosters for all of their help and financial assistance.

For your entertainment, we present the Carlisle High School Marching Band.
