

Carlisle High School Marching Band - 2005

CARLISLE HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

The Carlisle Area School District is proud to present the Carlisle High School Marching Band's 2005 field show, "Pursuit and Capture". The band is under the field direction of Drum Majors Audrey Wronski and Zach Kuhn.

This year's field show features the music of John Williams and David Holsinger and will include color guard and band members being chased and held in "cages" throughout the show. The show is in four parts with Part I presenting the main title theme from "Catch Me If You Can", bringing to life the chase of the color guard section. Part II is based on Holsinger's "Abrahm's Pursuit" and features the brass and woodwind sections as the color guard enjoys their freedom from the "cages". Part III is a return to "Catch Me If You Can" and depicts the pursued and pursuers existing in playful co-existence. "Abrahm's Pursuit" returns in Part IV as the color guard becomes the hunted once again. The trumpet duet features Ryan Myers and Nate Wysocki.

The Marching Band is directed by David Rohrer, assisted by Victor Wertz. Design staff includes Brian Prato, visual; Val Prato, color guard choreographer, Dan DeLong, percussion arranger; Brian Gochenour, pit percussion arranger; and Rick Wygant, music arranger. Staff members include Lynn Keefer, Melissa Saylor, Ryan Noss, Christine Ream, Irv Stevenson, Rob Walker, Brian Handly, Kristin Landis, Megan Ennis, Sherri Griscavage, Roger Wolf, Andrew Dietrich, and Chris Previc. Tony Piccolo is the Band Manager.

The band and band staff would like to thank the Carlisle High School Band Boosters for all of their help, support, and financial assistance throughout the year.
